Sharing the Spirit of our Ancestors

Ruben sculpts one of the many works in progress in his studio

An old Indian spirit came to him. He was older than old, he was ancient. He said nothing to Ruben. After seeing the old spirit, he began to see some intense visions and sights. Then the old spirit began to talk to him in visions, dreams and in his mind. His relationship with the Southwest, where he lives and works north of Santa Fe next to the Nambe pueblo, is mirrored in his art. Molten metal shapes his art as once molten rock shaped the environment in which he and his people live today.

Ruben stands with his works of art in his studio with breathtaking views

MY GOAL IS TO INSPIRE THE POWER OF FAITH THAT SO MANY HAVE FORGOTTEN ABOUT WITHIN THEMSELVES TO HELP THEM "COMMUNICATE WITH THE SPIRIT WORLD AND THE SPIRIT-THAT-MOVES-IN-ALL-THINGS, THE LIFE FORCE."
